ONE GOAL. ONE GLORY.

EHF FINAL4 WOMEN

29–30 MAY 2027
MVM DOME, BUDAPEST

After a season of relentless competition, only four remain. One will be crowned champion.

Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

Final season before change comes to EHF Champions League Women

Last season, history was made in the EHF Champions League Women, as Metz Handball became the first French team ever to win the top-tier women's competition. The stage is set for a thrilling last season played to the current format before an adaptation implemented in 2027/28.

From 2027/28, the group phase will look different, with smaller groups designed to make the stage as competitive as possible. Before that system is introduced, the 16 teams have one last chance to conquer the current format, which sees two groups of eight teams beginning the journey to the EHF FINAL4 Women in Budapest.

The latest two winners of the EHF Champions League Women, Metz Handball and Györi Audi ETO KC, start in group B, which also features 2024/25 finalists Odense Håndbold. Rounding out the group are Gloria Bistrita, Champions League stalwarts HC Podravka, EHF European League 2023/24 title winners Storhamar Håndball Elite, HSG Blomberg-Lippe and Nykøbing Falster Håndbold.

Group A is headlined by two of last season's semi-finalists, Brest Bretagne Handball and CSM Bucuresti. They are joined by a hungry Team Esbjerg eager to return to Budapest after missing the EHF FINAL4 Women last season following four straight participations. FTC-Toyota Kovács, who played for the trophy in 2022/23, also hope to take the EHF FINAL4 Women court in their home city come May.

Completing group A are BV Borussia Dortmund, RK Krim OTP Group Mercator, OTP Group Buducnost and Sola Håndballklubb. Where Buducnost followed by Krim are the record holders for most matches played in the EHF Champions League Women, Sola are on the complete other end of the scale: Set for their second top-flight season following their debut in 2025/26.

The EHF Champions League Women continues evolving with more teams reaching the competitive level required to play among the world's best — and this last season with the larger groups will be the springboard for the new format that will pave the way for what is to come.

We anticipate a thrilling season as the EHF Champions League Women farewells an era and looks ahead to the next.

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
EHF President

Dear handball friends,

Finally, the season is underway – and finally, for the fourth time, we get to take on the best in Europe in the EHF Champions League.

We are incredibly proud and excited to be among the very best. Perhaps we can surprise a few people along the way, and with the team we have this season, we know we are capable of putting up a real fight in many of these games.

We are looking forward to another Champions League season together with our fans and our players, and to creating that special atmosphere here at OBOS Arena. There is nothing quite like Champions League nights at home.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all our partners and volunteers who make it possible for our club to be part of this distinguished company, year after year.

And now, it is time for a proper handball celebration. Today, we welcome last season's finalist to our home court. Let's make it as difficult as possible for them to take two points back home – and, ideally, send them home with none.

New season. Let's get it started!

Best sporting regards,
Kamilla Sundmoen

Dear Storhamar family,

As I enter my final season with you here in Hamar, I want us to make it one to remember. Together, we have the opportunity to create some truly special memories – here at home, from the living room, and in arenas all across Europe.

Our squad looks a little different this year. We have brought in some different qualities, while we also have players who are currently unavailable. But all in all, I believe we have a squad that can make it's mark this season.

With that said, we are immensely proud to once again be part of the Champions League. There is a great sense of pride within me, and throughout the club, that we are competing at this level for the fourth time in five years.

We have been handed a tough group, with last season's finalists Győr and Champions League holders Metz among our opponents.

After a strong away win against Odense last weekend, we are now ready for another important match against Croatian side Podravka, who are level with us in the standings. We are ready to give it everything we have and are excited to show what we can do at home, while also looking to replicate many of the things we did well in the game against Odense.

So, there is plenty to look forward to: handball at the highest level, international stars representing their clubs and a determined Storhamar ready to show exactly what we are capable of.

Welcome to a new season, and welcome to the Champions League at OBOS Arena.

Warm regards,
Kenneth Gabrielsen
